James W. Nye and his Powers of Oratory.

In the Presidential campaign of 1852 Senator Nye was in the prime of his power as a political speaker. He entered heartily into the canvass as an advocate of Franklin Pierce. He came to Utica at the first ratification meeting, and the announcement of his name sufficed to crowd the old Mechanics' Hall. Our people were not very well acquainted with General Pierce at that time, but they hailed him as a hero of the Mexican war. But the wicked Whigs started a story to the effect that he never was in but one battle, and he was so frightened then that he fainted away. The Democrats, as in duty bound, denied the slander, but they were none the less vexed and troubled by the story. They withheld the story from Jim Nye through fear that it would embarrass him; but he had heard it somewhere. He was in excellent condition on that eventful night, and almost every sentence he uttered compelled applause. Finally, in the midst of his eulogy on Pierce, he exclaimed in a loud voice, but our opponents tell us that he fainted in battle." Then he made a long pause, while the audience preservered a painful, breathless silence. Having riveted every eye upon himself he arose to his full height, and with a magnificent sweep of his right hand, and with an indescribable power of suppressed emotion, he spoke these words: "I know not how it may be with others, but as for me, give me the soldier who fights until he faints!" Thereupon those who were seated rose to their feet; those who were standing jumped up and down, and yelled as they jumped. Men with handkerchiefs flung their hats into the air, caught them as they fell, and flung them up again. Such howling and cheering, and stamping of feet, and clapping of hands, and wild ejaculations of delight never before shook the rafters of that old hall; and amidst it all Jim Nye stood erect, awakening his audience to fresh demonstrations by his strong magnetism.

SENDING PORTRAITS BY TELEGRAPH.

The Paris correspondent of the London Standard writes: "It has often been said that the science of telegraphy is as yet only in its infancy. What it will be when it reaches the age of maturity it would be difficult to say with certainty, but some idea may be formed from an extraordinary telegraphic discovery just made in Paris. It appears that some inventor has found out the means of sending portraits by telegraph. The misadventurer has not yet been disclosed, but experiments have been made, and—if we are to believe the papers—with complete success. The trial was made by the police authorities of Paris and Lyons. The portrait of a Lyons official was forwarded from Paris by the new telegraphic apparatus, and at once recognized. In return the Lyons police telegraphed to Paris the portrait, accompanied by the usual description, of a clerk who had just absconded with his master's money, and the Paris police, thanks to the telegraphic portrait, were enabled to arrest the thief on his alighting from the train at the Lyons railway station. These facts are published on the best authority, and incredible as they may seem are no doubt authenticated. So far the ingenious discovery is only being employed for the detection of criminals, but it is evident that the police authorities will not be able to monopolize it, and that it will be turned to account by society at large under the various trying circumstances of life, and more especially in the cases of deserted wives and husbands, missing heirs, disconsolate lovers, and similar interesting beings."

THE CROP PROSPECTS IN SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY.—The prospect for an average crop in this county is far from encouraging at the present time, although if there should be moderate rains within the next two weeks, there would be reason to believe that most of the wheat sown would produce a crop. We have often had too much rain at this season of the year and then dry weather in the early spring, which seriously damages the crops. There are some fields of Summer fallowed land upon which the wheat is still looking well, and apparently but little affected by the drouth thus far, but there are many fields upon which wheat has been sown and the ground is too dry to cause the seed to germinate. This will, however, come up should we have rain soon, but it is generally admitted by the farmers that early rains are very necessary, and that the prospect for having the necessary moist weather is far from encouraging.—Stockton Independent, Jan. 8th.

A recent French invention is denominated "bottled light," and in Paris the watchmen use it in places where explosives or inflammable materials are kept. This "bottled light" may be easily obtained by any one. Take an oblong phial of the whitest and purest glass, and put into it a piece of phosphorus the size of a pea. Pour some olive oil, heated to the boiling point, upon the phosphorus; fill the phial about one-third, and then cork it tightly. To use this novel light, remove the cork, allow the air to enter the phial, and then recork it. The empty space in the phial will become luminous, and the light obtained will be equal to that of a lamp. When the light grows dim, its power can be increased by taking out the cork and allowing a fresh supply of air to enter the phial. In winter it is sometimes necessary to heat the phial between the hands in order to increase the fluidity of the oil. This is a good way to obtain light without employing matches, and the apparatus thus prepared may be used six months.

A tremendous "Amen" from his vast congregation followed Mr. Spurgeon's prayer the other day that the Turks might soon be driven out of Europe, and the whole of the Mohammedan power swept away from the face of the earth.

Numbers of tramps have passed through Winters, Cal., during the past ten days, and some of them were but poorly off for clothing.

A number of young men of Chico, Cal., are making arrangements to go to the Black Hills.

Those Indian War Claims.

The Eureka Sentinel, in commenting upon our article relative to the White Pine Indian War, hazzards the belief that we were not on the coast at that time. We had the honor of being in this State a portion of the time, and hold to the opinion that the real danger, both of loss and bloodshed, were greatly magnified by inhabitants of that section. We read accounts of the demonstrations by the Indians, and they were the subject of telegraphic reports, yet the whole matter can not be magnified into an Indian war, and that idea is what we laughed at. If any honest man left his work to defend life and property, we should be the last to repudiate his claims. We do not doubt that the people were frightened; we do not believe that the State was responsible for all the consequences of their fright, and hence we recommended a little caution, lest the State in trying to be generous, shall pay what she does not owe.

War means compelled loss. Inordinate fright makes voluntary sacrifices, and for these the State should not pay. Your experience was not a war, but a scare. Still, means were needed for your defense, and the State provided them. For these she should pay, and no more. We are informed that $18,000 of these claims have been audited. Will the Sentinel inform us of the items which occasion further demands?

Railroad Measures.

Assemblyman Wright has given notice of a bill imposing certain duties on the C. P. R. R. The bill requires the company to fence all the C. P. R. lands in this State by July 1, 1878, under a penalty of $50,000 and $1,000 per month fine for every month for fence unbuilt thereafter.

Assemblyman Grey has also introduced a concurrent resolution concerning fares and freights on the Central Pacific railroad. This is vibatum the same resolution introduced in the Assembly by Mr. Grey in the session of 1873. It calls for Congressional action for the regulation of fares and freights on the Central Pacific railroad. Rules suspended.—Read second time by title and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

The measures mean one of two things: Either the State is to take a hand in a solution of the Railroad problem, or certain men are agitating the matter in order to make their silence valuable. There is no doubt that many existing circumstances might be changed to the public benefit, and without doing injustice to corporations. We hope this may be the intent, and shall watch closely the progress of any such measures.

Sandstone vs. Granite.

The Carson Tribune has a hard time in bolstering up the virtues of its sandstone quarry near the State Prison and we will help it a little. The quarry at Carson is nearly worked out, that at Reno is nearly inexhaustible. The Carson sandstone is very poor building material; that at Reno is of the finest quality. In building the present walls near Reno the contractor did not dare use any of the Carson rock below the water table, or within reach of prisoners, because of its soft nature. In these portions the Reno granite alone could be used. Besides all this the Carson quarry belongs to Farmer Treadway, and to the Legislature, the task of paying for it four or five times. It is plain that the Tribune must quarry out a few more arguments on this subject, and also that the Enterprise has drawn editorial nourishment from the Tribune, and has been poorly supplied.

SMITH'S OPIUM BILL.—If the bill passes which was introduced in the Assembly by Smith, of Eureka, to suppress the use of opium, our Police Courts will have a little business with the Chinese and a few whites. The bill makes it a misdemeanor to sell or give away opium by any druggist without it is prescribed by a regular physician; also making it a misdemeanor to keep a house for those who use opium. The Courts may fine all those who violate the provisions of the bill not exceeding $500 or six months in the county jail, or both, at the discretion of the Court.

Legislative Correspondence.

Carson, January 10, 1877.

Life in the Capital is more of a curiosity than a comfort. Both branches of the Legislature are not overwhelmed with business; but the money now furnished by the state to legislators, attaches, etc., and the presence of these men and a number of lobbyists, create a little stir and infuses increased life in the various circles of Carson.

Last evening, in company with Ed. Parkinson of the Tribune, I attended the Theater. It is a small, dilapidated structure, not much inferior to Dyer's Hall, but has one peculiarity—the better entrance for ladies and gentlemen is through a back door while the "herd" march in at the front entrance. Little Nell and Giddens gave to a crowded house a very amusing entertainment and one that was highly enjoyed by the audience. We came to the conclusion, however, that although Carson has some 4500 inhabitants, Reno ladies are, to say the least, just as good looking as the ladies of the Capital.

STATE PRISON.

In the morning, in company with two legislators, I went to the State Prison, situated about a mile east of town. Col. Hyman, the polite warden, showed us through the various apartments. Under his management everything seems to move efficiently forward. As there is some controversy on the State Prison question I will state some facts in relation to the Carson Prison which may be of interest to your readers. There are at present 124 prisoners, being a smaller number than at any time for two years previous. The average number during this period is about 135. There are only 52 cells for all the prisoners, hence some cells must contain three men. The warden says that only one man should be in a cell but that he is compelled on account of the insufficiency of room to thus crowd the men together. There are seven guard towers which appeared such weak looking things that a man with a feeble constitution might push them over. In the quarry we found about 40 men at work getting out sandstone. This stone was found in nearly horizontal stratas with partially decomposed sandstone between, hence there is about one-third of it fair sandstone and the remaining two-thirds an inferior building material. In the shoe shop are 40 men making boots and shoes. At the present time the shoe shop and quarry are well conducted and are producing a fair revenue towards the payment of Prison expenses. The carpenter shop, tailor shop, wash house and bath house are all small. The health of the prisoners is very good and there has been no escapes for a number of months, from which we conclude that they must be pretty well fed and cared for. I found that the present State Prison is decidedly insufficient for the State wants. While the buildings are very good and even and conveniently arranged, they are entirely inadequate to the Prison demands. The expenditure of some $150,000 would erect the necessary buildings and give the Carson Prison the needed room and shops. But I found that a serious difficulty is that the grounds in strict law belong to private parties, and that two gentlemen, Adams and Mesicks, in California, brought suit in the United States Circuit Court to obtain possession of them. The Court's instructions to the jury were explicit, but the Carson jurymen hung the jury. A discussion on the special findings of the jury will be made next Monday. But the question of title it is asserted vests in private parties. If such is the case it is only a question of a short time when the State must give possession of the grounds or pay an exorbitant price for them to Treadway and others. There are 20 acres included in these grounds, but the larger portion is strongly impregnated with alkali. $150,000 was appropriated at the last Legislature for Prison expenses during the past two years. This sum includes the transportation of criminals to the prison.

LEGISLATURE.

My letter is so long already, and the legislative proceedings so meagre that I will say but a few words on this subject. Edwards' bill in reference to the government of the State Prison and the election of Wardens by joint ballot, excites considerable private comment. There is some probability of the bill passing. Senator Ross moved that the Committee on Ways and Means visit the State Prison walls at Reno, instead of Committee on State Affairs. Carried. Comins introduced a resolution relative to the Board of State Prison Examiners furnishing all reports connected with the State Prison examination of two years ago, and that all books, papers, etc., connected with that inquisition be handed into the Secretary of the Senate. Adopted. Shephard introduced a bill to pay $3,600 for Clerk's salary of the State Librarian for the past two years. There will be some opposition to the passage of this bill, as it is half of the official duty of the Lieutenant Governor to be Librarian without a clerk. The Assembly session was short—50 minutes long. Mighels introduced a bill to eliminate the word white in our State constitution.

Rockhill created a little stir by introducing bill No. 24, entitled an Act providing for taxing net proceeds of mines, and providing what shall be considered net proceeds. The bill was ordered printed, but will not pass. In the afternoon we went through the Mint, but will speak of that tomorrow. J. SMITH.

Jottings.

Pick out your man to-day, they'll all be gone soon.

Commissioner Hymers has gone to Virginia.

Second street is being overhauled.

Sanders & Co. are occupying their new quarters in Odd Fellows' Hall.

We acknowledge the receipt of a 6400 Potter's Improved Steam Power Press to-day. The little thing caused us a deal of muscular exertion, and Alexander so it was said on good authority actually perspired. We hope to hear from the intruder soon and to get the Gazette out earlier.

The Reno Savings Bank will take possession of their new quarters next Monday. Sanders & Co. are already in position with a fine stock of chairs and other furniture with more coming.

Messrs. Morris & Frankfield will open their new barber shop, on Virginia street next Monday.

The wounded brakeman Smith is improving.

Flynn is in a precarious condition.

H. M. Cohn has added considerable to his stock of gentlemen's goods and will receive a large stock in a few days.

Joe Peers lights up his saloon with Reno gas tonight.

Chelovich's Billiard Parlors will be opened to-night. They are elegant and provide a central and quiet retreat for those who love the cue and ivory.

The local reporter acknowledges the receipt of many favors from Washoe County representatives. The only theory by which we can account for such treatment is that gentlemen can only act gentlemanly.

The Police Court was very quiet to-day.

Deputy-Sheriffs G. W. Avery and C. W. Jones filed the necessary bonds to-day.

The Champions of the Red Cross will give a grand ball on the evening of the 21st instant. See advertisement in another column.

ARRESTED.—Martin and Johnson, two chaps who are supposed to have stolen Wm. Morrison's overcoat and laprobe from his wagon in front of the Methodist Church, last Sunday night, were arrested this afternoon by Charley Jones. They had taken refuge in one of the towers of the State Prison. The overcoat and robe were found in their possession, but the innocents say they bought the stolen articles. Morrison thinks it rather expensive to go to Church on Sunday evening.

SIDEWALKS.—A good beginning for a cross walk on Virginia street has been made. We don't see why there should be any valid reasons urged that the work should cease, or that there should not be others commenced and completed in town. We certainly need them. Property holders should not wait on the incorporation project, and we fear that it will not be, it will cost them more to fix sidewalks, crossings, and clean up streets than at present. Winter is upon us or soon will be, and so let us, with a little setting aside of abominable selfishness, provide decent sidewalks, street crossings and clean streets.

Go hear Nell and George Giddens in their great Whoop la! Duet from La Perichole.

GRAND OPENING.—The elegant billiard parlors of the Wine House, on Commercial Row, will be thrown open to the public this evening (Jan. 11th). Two beautiful Liesenfeld tables, together with the neat and tasty fitting up throughout, makes this one of the finest resorts in the State of Nevada. Also in a few days a wholesale liquor house will be opened in the rooms formerly occupied by D. A. Bender & Co., where a complete stock of the finest and purest wines, liquors and imported champagnes ever brought to Reno will always be found for sale at the lowest market rates.

E. CHELOVICH & Co.

DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court was opened to-day and the case of Jones & Co. vs. Gamble called. To the surprise and annoyance of the parties the papers on both sides could not be found, the case was continued for the term with leave to substitute pleadings during the present term. The Court then adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten, when the cases of Jones et al vs. Pacific Wood, Lumber and Flume Co. will come up for hearing.

Don't fail to see Nell's Banjo and Guitar solos to-night.

APOLOGETIC.—The small amount of reading matter presented to-day must be overlooked because of the arrival of our new 3-ton power press. Much time has been taken up in moving it, and every printer in the office has claimed his privilege of examining each separate piece. The press is a fine one and we hope with its aid to render apologies unnecessary.

LITTLE NELL.—This evening Little Nell, the California Diamond, and George Giddens, the Australian comedian, enliven the prosiness of the times at the Opera House. We saw them at Carson Tuesday evening and pronounce their entertainment a success. The Carson people greeted them with a a crowded house, and Reno may safely do the same.

Don't fail to see Nell to-night in her great impersonations.

BROOM MANUFACTORY.—H. K. Hebart has secured a room in Kimball's machine shop, where he will soon open a broom manufactory. He will commence operations in a few days, and be ready to supply the broom market in a couple of weeks. We intend to keep our office clean after the first of the month.

Nell in Dutch and Irish characters.

RIVERSIDE.—This evening the Riverside Club meet for instruction from Messrs. Church & Jones, at Dyer's Hall. The character of these parties are too well known to require comment. Several of the Legislators will be present, and a first-class party will be richly enjoyed.

LOST.—A fur collar belonging to Mrs. J. E. Jones was lost at Dyer's Hall last Friday Evening. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at Mr. Jones' residence or at this office.

AGENT.—W. J. Marsh has been authorized by the well known musical firm of Sherman & Hyde, to effect sales for all their instruments on any terms given at their house, including the Weber, Sherman & Hyde and Cottage Gem Pianos, and Standard Organs. He will sell any of these instruments on such easy installments that everybody can buy with a little effort.

HONEY LAKE APPLES.—J. N. Jaquish has now on hand 800 boxes of the celebrated Honey Lake apples. The established reputation of this fruit is entirely sufficient to warrant its quality. For sale by the box cheap for cash. J. N. JAQUISH, Commercial Row.

SILVER-PLATED WARE.—S. N. Davidson announces that he will sell during the holidays quadruple silver-plated Napkin Rings, of Rogers' make, with initials engraved thereon, for 25 cents, largest size, 50 cents. Silver thimbles with initials engraved, 25 cents, and all other goods in proportion.

WANTS WORK.—An engineer from Virginia City is now stopping at the Pollard House. He is a man of family and is anxious to get honorable employment of any kind.

JAMES TOOMBS extends this public invitation to all debtors who are in his debt prior to August, 1876, to call at Toombs & Co. and settle their accounts before the 15th of Dec. as he will, at that time, place said accounts in the hands of an attorney for collection. Call with coin, gentlemen, and save costs of suit.

WANTED.—A small house, furnished or unfurnished, near the Reno Gas Works. Leave address at this office. 1-41f

DR. G. R. HUTCHINSON extracts teeth for One Dollar, and fills teeth for One Dollar and upwards. Artificial teeth from $5 to $20. 9-81f

NOTICE.—After this date our place of business will be closed on Sundays. JAS. TOOMBS & CO. Reno, January 20, 1877.

WANTED.—Six or eight gentlemen to board in a private family. Meals regular, supply abundant, terms, $7 per week. For particulars apply at the Gazette office.

Choice dairy cattle for sale, cheap for cash. Apply at this office.

LOST.—Last Tuesday morning an embroidered brown pocket-book, containing notices about the California cities was lost between the International and Depot Hotels. A suitable reward will be given to the one who finding the above book shall leave it at the International Hotel.

Boots and Shoes made and repaired at John Sunderland's.

For a first class Custom made Boot or shoe, go to John Sunderland's, on Virginia street.

Mrs. H. ANDERSON, Physician and Mid Wife. Office and residence on north side of Plaza street, between Nevada and Center streets, Reno. 8-101f

STILL ON TOP.—Hurrah for the Centennial. Nick wants the public to know that all danger has been removed. That no man who shaves at the Centennial need fear for his throat. No danger of having your hair poorly cut or losing a piece of your cheek at this shop, on account of a poor light; and why? Yes, why? Well, Nick, in order to keep ahead and have all modern improvements he has introduced gas into his shop and you would hardly know the place. Step around-gents, opposite Norton's butcher shop, and get shaved, and come early, for there are always a two-crowds around. One comes to get shaved and the other to admire the shop by gas-light. 12-11f

A GRAVE MISTAKE.—As a resident of Woodward avenue stood at his gate yesterday morning, a boy about thirteen years old came along with a snow-shovel on his shoulder.

"Ha! boy—come here—want a job?" called the gentleman.

"Sir!" answered the boy with great dignity.

"Pitch the snow off my walk and I'll give you a quarter," continued the Avenuer.

"Sir! you don't know me," said the lad as he marched on. "I am on my way to clear the walks in front of my father's fourteen lots up here. All our eighteen horses are lame, and our gold-mounted snow-plow is out of order, or else you wouldn't see me carrying this shovel around. I'm offering five dollars to any one who will carry it up as far as Parsons street."

Free Press.

A SYMPATHETIC MAN.—A mother and babe were among the passengers at the Central depot yesterday. She had the child carefully wrapped up, and this fact, perhaps, attracted the attention of a big fellow with a three story overcoat and a rusty satchel in his hand. Sitting down beside her he remarked:

"Cold weather for such little people, isn't it?"

She faintly nodded.

"Does he seem to feel it much?" continued the man.

She shook her head.

"Is it a healthy child?" he asked, seeming greatly interested.

"He was up to a few moments ago," she snapped out, "but I'm afraid he's smelted so much whikey that he'll have the delirium tremens before night."

The man got right up and walked out of the room and was afterward seen buying cloves and cinnamon.—Free Press.
